

LOOK TO YOUR TICKETS.

Republicans should look well to their tickets before voting. All sorts will be in circulation, and strong solicitations to scratch. Don't be deceived, or don't fool away your votes.

It is at least safe for democrats to vote for Judge Knowlton.—Madison Patriot. If it is safe for democrats, under the lead of Gov. Bartow, A. Hyatt Smith and other such leaders of the democracy, to vote for James H. Knowlton, it is certainly safe for republicans to vote for Orsamus Cole, and we hope they will do so.

Illinois Banks Thrown Out at Chicago.

A despatch was received at the Rock County Bank, in this city, this morning, from Chicago, stating that the notes of the following banks were thrown out today by the bankers at Chicago:

Bank of Carmi,	Bank of Chester,
Do. Federal Union,	Do. Pike County,
Do. Quincy,	Do. Quincy,
Bank of the Republic,	Bank of Southern Illinois,
Do. Bolivar,	Do. Bolivar,
Bank of Benton,	Bank of Albion,
Commercial Bank of,	Prairie State Bank,
New Haven,	Union County Bank,
Shawnee Bank,	Frontier Bank,
Grand Prairie Bank,	Illinois State Bank,
Lancaster Bank,	Merchants & Drapers,
Mississippi River Bank,	Bank,
Bank,	Morgan County Bank,
New Market Bank,	Rail Road Bank,
Pamet Bank,	Canal Bank,
Citizens Bank at Corn Planters Bank,	Carmel,
Edgar County Bank,	Farmers Bank, New Canton,
Farmers Bank, Metropolis,	Farmers' & Traders' Bank,

We advise holders of bills on these banks not to sacrifice much upon them until further news is received. Under the excitement it is probable that a greater discount will be demanded upon them, to-day, than at any time hereafter.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says that notes of the above banks were thrown out of the banks of that city this morning, and that they have a circulation of about three and a half millions of dollars, based upon Missouri, Tennessee and Louisiana stocks. At the present market rates, the securities on these notes are worth from 85 to 90 cents on the dollar.

To TAXPAYERS.—We hear a good deal of fear expressed by many of our citizens that if Judge Knowlton is elected Judge of the Supreme Court that it will be hopeless to attempt to have our back delinquent taxes re-assessed on the property that ought to pay them; for, although most of our lawyers believe the bill now before the legislature will accomplish that object, it is understood that Judge Knowlton has already expressed his opinion that there is no way in which the property justly chargeable can legally be made to pay those taxes. If this is so his election would be a calamity at least to this city, and the fact that Mr. Knowlton has not paid his taxes very promptly since he has resided here gives weight to these fears.

Summer Railway Time Table.

The following is the summer time table adopted by the railroad convention at Cleveland, Thursday, March 28. It goes into effect on the 15th of this month. Under this arrangement the Chicago mail will arrive here, after the 15th, at half past one o'clock in the afternoon, which will be a decided improvement upon the present arrangement:

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Places of Holding the Polls.

First Ward.—Engine House of No. 3.
Second Ward.—Engine House of No. 2.
Third Ward.—Office formerly occupied by L. Field.
Fourth Ward.—Lumber office of J. W. Storey.

City Treasurer.

The contest for city treasurer promises to be an exciting one. We have studiously abstained, while supporting Mr. Young as the nominee of the convention, from impeding the motives of the friends of Mr. Baxter, or denying their right, though we questioned the policy of their supporting him. We have published the call of Mr. Baxter, at the request of some of his friends, that he and they might have no just cause of complaint that they had no opportunity to bring him fairly before the people. This, we think, is all the friends of Mr. Baxter can reasonably ask of us.

A Card.

Having signed the call for Mr. Baxter as an independent candidate for city treasurer, under a misapprehension of the facts connected with the nomination of Mr. Young, and my name having been published in Mr. Baxter's call, I desire to withdraw my name from the call, and give my support to Mr. Young.

S. W. SPENCER.

Fourth Ward.

Special interest attaches to the election in the fourth ward to-morrow. The republicans nominated an unexceptionable ticket, and can carry the ward, if they all work together. Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Spencer are two of the very best men in the ward, and their election would give the people of the ward such officers as they could repose the fullest confidence in. Let there then be a united and vigorous effort for them, and secure their services for the ward and the city.

Democratic City Ticket.

The democratic city convention, Saturday evening, nominated J. B. Doe for Mayor, CHARLES SKELLY for Treasurer, W. H. SARGENT for Clerk, and J. H. VERMILION for Justice of the Peace.

There is no reason whatever why, in a republican city like Janesville, this ticket, or any part of it, should stand the ghost of a chance; and it will not, if republicans stand by their own ticket, as they ought to. We ask every republican in what respect, personal or otherwise, any man on this democratic ticket is preferable to his competitor on the republican ticket? And, as a party contest, what is to be gained by deserting any republican and voting indirectly for a democratic candidate, or indirectly by voting for an independent republican? Think how the news of the election of any democrat in the city of Janesville would be greeted abroad, and what shouts of triumph would go up among the democrats at home.

Young or Skelly.

Either George A. Young, a republican, or Charles Skelly, a democrat, will be elected Treasurer of this city to-morrow. Mr. Baxter cannot be elected. So the only effect of any republican voting for Mr. Baxter will be, not to benefit Mr. Baxter, but to endanger the election of Mr. Young by contributing to the chances of Mr. Skelly. Let republicans choose wisely.

TRINITY CHURCH.—Election of Officers.—At the annual election of wardens and vestrymen of Trinity Church for the ensuing year, held at the church to-day, the following gentlemen were elected—J. B. Doe, senior warden, S. A. Hudson, junior warden; J. C. Metcalf, J. A. Wood, J. C. Jenkins, E. G. Harlow, H. S. Shelton, E. L. Dimock, A. Palmer and Chas. Norton, vestrymen.

BROADWAY HOSE.—For the information of the numerous sportsmen who labored so hard to gain possession of that duck, seen near the upper bridge to-day, I would say that he was finally brought safely ashore by one of our citizens by means of a trussing string which had been securely attached to his wooden duckship, and by means of which he was made to perform sundry antics, which led one of our best sportsmen (after trying four shots with an "old iron gun") to become somewhat incredulous of the nature of the game which he failed, but so much desired, to get possession of.

APRIL FOOT.

CHRIST CHURCH.—At the annual election for Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church Parish, held this day, Mr. O. K. Bennett was elected Senior Warden, Mr. French M. Smith, Junior Warden, and Messrs. S. W. Smith, Eiram Jackson, L. E. Stone, Ezra Miller, D. Ballou, L. F. Patton and J. J. R. Pease, were elected Vestrymen.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The April number of the Atlantic Monthly, which we have just received, is a model one. Each number seems to increase in interest and its articles are of the highest order. The Atlantic maintains the high and independent stand taken at its commencement, and is not the apologist of southern oligarchies. The articles this month are—"April Days," "The Professor's Story," concluded, "Bubbles," "Cities and Parks," "Life in the Iron Mills," "The Reign of King Cotton," "Glimpses of Garibaldi," "Two or three Troubles," "Marion Dale," a fine poem, "Charleston under Arms," reviews and literary notices. Terms $5 per year.

Our readers will see that Echlin & Foote have added a new branch to their business, viz: a fine assortment of hats and caps which they are selling at very low prices. Knowing what we do, we advise those wishing anything in that line to call and purchase.

No man is happy without a delusion of some kind. Delusions are as necessary to our happiness as realities.
